

LOOSE GAME WON BY I. A. C.

Bethel Made a Round Dozen of Errors

AND WAS DEFEATED, 8 TO 4

Dutton Pitched Good Enough Ball for the Visitors, But Couldn't Do Anything with Support He Had—Scamp-ini Officiated for I. A. C.

In a loosely played game, the Italian Athletic club defeated a bunch of ball players from Bethel at the Rangers grounds Saturday afternoon, 8 to 4. Wild throws and the mugging of the easiest kind of fly balls were the only features, especially on the part of the visiting team. Only one of the total of twelve runs scored in the game was earned. Two wild throws by the visitors led in as many runs, and muffs and fumbling were responsible for the rest of the Italian's runs, while Scampini contributed a wild throw over third and a wild pitch that gave Bethel two runs in the eighth inning.

Though Scampini fanned 11 of the Bethel batters, he was touched up for nine safe singles, including a two-bagger by Newman in the eighth. Scampini's base on balls paved the way for the visitors' run in the third inning, and they earned a run on him in the seventh on two hits and a stolen base.

Dutton was the box artist for the Bethels and while he did not seem to have much the locals got only seven hits off him and had been given decent support would have made the game interesting for the locals. Shaw, who covered the third sack for Bethel, is a former Goddard player. He played second base on the "hill" a year ago. The score:

RESTORES LIFE TO A DEAD MAN.
Sua Victim Is Saved from Morgue by Electricity.

Worcester, Mass., June 28.—After being officially declared dead Saturday and after his body had been placed on a truck to be removed to the morgue from a not in the City hospital, Joseph Remillard, aged 40, of 16 Orange street, was brought back to life by the use of electricity. He is reported to be improving.

Remillard is a baker. Saturday he was overcome by the heat and fell on the floor. The police ambulance was called and Dr. Richard J. Shamahan found Remillard close to death.

By means of artificial respiration the doctor was able to maintain the spark of life until he could procure a basket of chopped ice, with which he surrounded Remillard's body.

When he had thus reduced the man's temperature he took Remillard to the hospital, where all the ordinary means of prolonging life in cases of heat prostration were resorted to. This apparently failed and 10 minutes after Remillard reached the hospital he was declared dead.

As the body was being removed to the morgue the doctors thought they would try an electric current, and after a few applications they were surprised to see a spasmodic twitching of the muscles and in a few minutes Remillard was restored to consciousness.

TRIED TO LEAVE DEATH TRUNK.
Trunk Seen Like the One in Which the Sidel Body Was Found.

New York, June 28.—The New York police confirmed Saturday night the new phase of the Sidel murder case brought to light in Newark, N. J., Saturday, that Leon Ling was in Newark early in the afternoon of the day of the murder with a heavy, oval-topped trunk, like the one in which the body was found, on his hands, and a pressing anxiety to be rid of it.

It has been asserted that he attempted to leave the trunk in the Newark restaurant of Li Sing, but prudent Li Sing would not hear of having the trunk dumped on him.

The mystery of just how Sidel was killed was cleared up to some extent Saturday with the announcement of the result of the coroner's autopsy, supporting in a way that the murder was not premeditated, but committed on the spur of the moment by the jealous, crazed Chinaman.

Mr. O'Hanlon of the coroner's office said Saturday night that there had been no ruptured blood vessels such as always accompany death by violent strangulation, but that, on the contrary, there was evidence of congestion of the lungs, such as always goes with death by asphyxiation.

There is absolutely no confirmation made to the police by a clerical friend of the Sidel family that Sidel ever married Chu Gain, Leon Ling's rival, who is held under bonds as a material witness. Chu Gain protested that he had sorrows enough without being made out a widower.

TRIED TO KILL BROTHER'S WIFE.

Malden Mass. Man Then Blew Out His Own Brain.

Malden, Mass., June 28.—Angered because his brother and brother's wife did not approve of the choice of his affection, Robert S. Nixon, 25, of 30 Eastern avenue, late Saturday night attacked his sister-in-law, Mrs. William Nixon, in front of her home, firing one shot at her which grazed her head.

Later he committed suicide by shooting himself in the head at the stable where he was night hostler, at 71 Charles street, half a mile away.

Nixon had been making his home with his brother William and the latter's wife, Mrs. Ida Nixon. It is claimed that Robert had been told that he must leave the house, and became angered. He went to Boston early Saturday night after having struck Mrs. Nixon.

Returning at 10:30 he met Mrs. Nixon and Mrs. Elizabeth Stodder walking on Eastern avenue. Drawing a revolver, he fired once at Mrs. Nixon, the bullet grazing the left side of her head, but doing little harm. She fled into the house and Nixon disappeared.

About 11 o'clock Nixon appeared at the stable of the Malden Automobile Express company, where he was employed, and approaching a group in the stable doorway, shouted:

"Do you want to see some excitement? Did you ever see a man shoot himself? Well, watch this!"

Immediately he placed a revolver against his head and fired one shot into his temple, falling dead.

Assistant Medical Examiner Dr. H. S. Johnson viewed the body.

JAS. K. PIRIE

IS PRESIDENT

Of Vermont Log Rollers of Modern Woodmen

RE-ELECTED AT RUTLAND

Where the Log Rollers Met Saturday.
Parade, Banquet and Speeches Precede Sports—Winners in the Latter Events.

Rutland, June 28.—Armed with the trusty implements of their calling, hundreds of members of the Vermont log rolling association made up from the different camps of the Modern Woodmen of America gathered in Rutland Saturday for their annual meeting and were given a royal welcome on their first visit here as a body. Every camp in the state was well represented and relatives and friends who came to join in the festivities brought the attendance at the events up to about 3000 persons.

The program included band concerts by the Rutland city band and the Proctor band, a parade after dinner, speeches and athletic contests and a baseball game at the fair grounds and the closing ball this evening.

At the business session Saturday afternoon the following officers were re-elected: James K. Pirie of Graniteville pres., Dr. J. P. Wilson of Fairhaven vice pres., Clarence L. Dye of Rutland sec. and L. W. Wright of Richmond treas. And although invitations were received by a large majority to hold the next annual convention in Rutland, the parade started at 1 o'clock with nearly 400 in line. It was led by Marshal C. A. Metzger and his aides, L. B. Brigham and B. H. Stickney, followed by a platoon of police. Next came the Rutland city band and the Daughters of Woodcraft of Burlington were given the place of honor in the ranks.

There was a big delegation of "log rollers" following a wagon decorated with the national colors and carrying the emblematic logs of the order.

The Proctor band headed the second division and was followed by good sized delegations from the camps at Hartford, Wells, Fairhaven, Burlington, Benning, West Pawlet, West Rupert, Orwell, Shelburne, Montpelier, Woodstock, St. Albans and Whitehall, Salem and Granville, N. Y.

One slight accident occurred in the parade, the horse of B. H. Stickney, an aid to the marshal, stumbled near the fair ground, throwing Mr. Stickney and falling upon him. He was severely bruised in the right side and was removed to his home.

At the fair grounds, Mayor Carpenter made the address of welcome. Benjamin Gates of Montpelier, the speaker of the day, talked on the principles of workmanship, dwelling particularly on the fact that although the organization is the largest in the world of its kind, having 1,100,000 members, it is conducted at the least expense per capita. He also stated that should a call to arms be necessary again in this country the Woodmen's teams would furnish 80,000 or 90,000 well-drilled men.

West Rupert defeated Granville N. Y. 3 to 1, in the baseball game which was fast and interesting.

The competitive drill for the Pirie cup was won by Alpha camp of Burlington, which was victorious last year. The athletic contests were interesting.

Quarter-mile run—Won by Carpenter of Fair Haven; second, White, of Burlington. Time 1:12.

Pipe race—Won by Hendee of Pittsford; second, White, of Burlington.

Hop, step and jump—Won by Carpenter of Fair Haven; second, McFarren of Fair Haven. Distance 37 ft., 8 1/2 in.

Running high jump—Carpenter and Young tied for first place; second, Fish of Castleton. Height 5 ft.

One-half mile run—Won by Carpenter of Fair Haven; second, Young of Fair Haven. Time 1:26 1/4.

GOULDS APPEAR SATISFIED.
No Appeal Expected from Decision in Notorious Case.

New York, June 28.—It is believed at New York that no appeal will be taken either by Mrs. Gould or her husband from the decision of Justice Dowling Friday, granting Mrs. Gould the separation for which she sued and $36,000 a year alimony. Mrs. Gould, who has expressed her gratification over the verdict of the court, will soon leave New York for her farm at Lynbrook, Va. While it is possible for either Mr. or Mrs. Gould to bring an action for divorce, counsel for Mrs. Gould evidently regard this as improbable for the present at least, after Justice Dowling's disposition of the charges made by Mr. Gould against his wife. The decision of Justice Dowling brought to a close one of the most remarkable court proceedings in the history of New York City. In the belief that the case is ended, Mr. Shearn, counsel for Mrs. Gould, will sail for Europe in a short time.

DIGGING AT THE GUNNESS FARM.
Search for More Victims of the Arch-murderers—A Law Suit.

Laporte, Ind., June 28.—Digging was resumed on the Guinness farm Saturday, after a lapse of eight months, in order to settle positively as to whether bodies of any more victims of the arch-murderers are in the vicinity of the ground from which 10 have already been taken. No success attended the efforts. The case of the estate of Andrew Helgelin, Mrs. Guinness' last victim, against the executor of the will of Mrs. Guinness, for the recovery of the $2,000 which Mrs. Guinness is alleged to have obtained from the South Dakota ranchman before she murdered him, will begin at Laporte, this week. Mrs. Larson and two sisters of Mrs. Guinness in Norway will inherit her property, as the Norwegian orphanage in Chicago has refused a bequest made it in the woman's will on the ground that it is blood money.
